Main body - six narrow bands hand stitched full length except for Union Jack inset (upper left corner); British naval ensign; handspun

History

The design of this flag is the standard Red Ensign, a mercantile flag that has been in use throughout the British Commonwealth since 1801. The flag was acquired by this museum in 1960 from Mrs. Hoey, whose father Mr. P.W.A. Fitzsimmons, a resident of Tecumseh, Michigan, had acquired it from Mr. Joseph McCoonse.

Joseph McCoonse is described by a lawyer in 1905 as a "Chippewa Indian of more than ordinary intelligence who bears the best of reputations." Mr. Fitzsimmons had seen this flag on display in the Indian Territory building at the 1904 St. Louis World Fair. Mr. McCoonse's father was Ashton-gust

YOUTH ARTS AWARENESS

The logo for National Youth Arts Week features the text "National Youth Arts Week" in a black, sans-serif font. The text is arranged in three lines: "National" on the top line, "Youth Arts" on the middle line, and "Week" on the bottom line. The text is centered within a large, stylized circular graphic composed of overlapping, semi-transparent segments in shades of yellow, orange, and blue, creating a dynamic, artistic effect.

*your community
your talents
your week*

Planning is underway for National Youth Arts Week 2013. From May 1 to 7 young people across Canada will join together to host Canada's largest youth-led celebration of creative expression and community involvement. National Youth Arts Week showcases simultaneous youth arts projects from St. John's to Vancouver and everywhere in between. The week is a project of the Arts Network for Children & Youth.
